CIVIL COURTS. SATURDAY, Nov. 27,

In the Superior Court to day, the following decisions George S. Nichols vs. the Mayor, Commonality, &c. of

New-York .- This was an action to recover penalty fer violating a city ordinance which requires pressed hay to be inspected and weighed by persons appointed by the Corporation. The plaintiff in error contends that a State lise exists which takes the power out of the hands of the Corporation, and morely requires the owner of pressed hay personally to put the mark and weight on his bundles, hay personally to put the mark and weight on his bundles, for violation of which he can only be fixed by complaint of and for benefit of buyer. A judgement had been obtained against Mr. Nickols in behalf of the Corporation in the Court below. Judgement reversed.

John Bachford, Alex. Delaton, Wm. Seeles, David J. Van

Gelder, Charles M. Valeatine, William Winter, William Wood, John E. Tobey and Ira Bickford vs. the Mayor, Commonality, &c. of New-York.—These were nine cases of appeal brought up from the Court below by the counsel, Theodore E. Tomlinson, Esq., in behalf of the par-ties, who are shop-butchers, and each had beau fined $50, according to law, for selling ment at other places that the public markets. The appeal was sustained principally on the ground that the law wer unconstitutional. The Court observed that it had often expressed itself as considering the law constitutional, and had no remos now to change its opinion. Judgements affirmed. William G. Boggs vs. Joseph E. Mount.-An appeal relative to judgement obtained against plaintiff in error for injury done to a horse. Judgement affirmed. Leis Antonio Madisga vs. John Ward.—Judgement af the offence. PUBLISHING BARRELS .- Watchman Wenham arrested last evening a man named Peter Manahan for stealing new barrels, and breaking them up for fire wood, from off the side walk in North Moore street. Committed ROBBERY.-James Mannsfield was arrested and co flitted for stealing a cap and two shillings from a boy named John Brown, while in an eating-house togethe.

CORONER'S OFFICE.

SATURDAY, Nov. 27 An Induman Merner, -An inquest was held by the Coroner to day at the residence of Elizabeth Sheath, 211 Centre-street, under the following circumstances: Abou e'clock on Friday afternoon, a girl named Ann Sexuath, who beardes at the above house, was delivered of a male this, alone in her room. Soon ofter she placed the infant in a vessel, carried it down the stairs, and threw it into the sink. On her return she was met by the lady of the house, who asked her what she had been doing. She reslied," Nothing-I am better now." Mrs. Sneath, or neg the state of the stairs, thought all was not right and communicating her fears to her sister, Mrs. Le test had proceeded to the yard, and, on looking down the sink, perceived the arm of a child protruding therefrom. Help being obtained, the body was taken up and carried to the room of the mother, who, on seeing it, said "Oh! Mrs. Lewis, if that's my child, I know nothing about it." Dr. W. S. Tompkins and Dr. Turpin made a post mortem examination of the body, and discovered suf Scient indication that the child had breathed. A confex of the above facts was subsequently made by the girl, who was given by the Coroner to the custody ter Relyen, who, assisted by Deputy Coroner Milligan. conducted her yesterday to the Bellevae Hospital, with orders for her imprisoment when able to be removed hither. The jury returned a verdict that "the child came to his death by the wilful neglect of his mother.

The Coroner held an inquest yesterday at the Alms-bouse, Fark, on the body of an unknown man, found float ing at the feet of Charles-street. The body was discov ed a cut so'cleck, A. M. by a boy named Nathan Fertion on upard of a schooner lying at that place. De-ceased was about 45 years of ago, dressed in a black coat, brown linen pantaloous, &c. much toro and mended, double breasted valencia vest, woolen stockings, white cotton thirt, drawers and shoes. The body appeared to have been in the water a considerable period. Verdict, found
